

1:45 PM – PANEL 6 – ROOM 400 A
MEDICINE, SOCIETY, AND WAR IN 18TH-CENTURY BRITAIN
AND BRITISH AMERICA

Matthew Hall, Discussant

Yvonne Gaspar, University of Notre Dame, "Nurserymen and Philosophers: John Cowell's Aloe at Hoxton"

Timothy Leech, Ohio State University, "'A Constitutional Army': The Role of Massachusetts in the Decision to Establish the Continental Army"

Paul Glasser, University of Kentucky, "Inflamed by Wine: the Sociability of James Boswell"

1:45 PM – PANEL 7 – ROOM 400 B
CULTURE AND TECHNOLOGY IN THE 20TH CENTURY

Alana Hogue, Discussant

Nathan McGee, University of Cincinnati, "'Renfro Valley Is Your Community Too': A Modern Vision of the Past at Renfro Valley, 1937-1950"

Gregory Seltzer, University of Kentucky, "Aeronautics at the Expos: Promoting French Aviation in 1922, 1931, and 1937"

1:45 PM – PANEL 8 – ROOM 400 C
CONTESTING POLICY, PERCEPTION,
AND POLITICS IN THE 20TH CENTURY

Vanessa de los Reyes, Discussant

Emily Saunders, University of Cincinnati, "The Right Instructor? Developing Education in Afghanistan"

Jamison Brogdon, University of Cincinnati, "Treaties, Half-Truths, and Perceptions: Selling the Schuman Plan in Saarbrücken, West Germany"

David Weyhe, University of Cincinnati, "The World League for Sexual Reform: Transnational Triumph or Fractured Failure?"

Sean Kennedy, University of Cincinnati, "The Historical Perspectives of Narco-Trafficking and Political Corruption in Mexico"

TENTH ANNUAL QUEEN CITY COLLOQUIUM

29 March 2013
Tangeman University Center

Presented by the University of Cincinnati
History Graduate Student Association

9:00 AM – PANEL 1 – ROOM 400 A
WOMEN, CHILDREN, AND REDEFINING ACTIVISM IN THE 20TH CENTURY

Debra Burgess, Discussant

Alyssa McClanahan, University of Cincinnati, "Take the Toys from the Boys! Anti-Nuclear Feminism and the Women's Liberation Movement"

Reyna Esquivel-King, Ohio State University, "'There were Dead and Wounded, Many of them Children': Children and Adolescents, the Student Movement of 1968, Mexico and the Tlatelolco Massacre"

Rachel Powell, University of Cincinnati, "'We initiate change; we do not beg for change': Intertwining Feminism, Multiculturalism, and Conservatism in Women's Clubs"

9:00 AM – PANEL 2 – ROOM 400 B
PLANNING AND SOCIETY IN 20TH-CENTURY AMERICA

Petersen Niehoff, Discussant

Angela Stiefbold, University of Cincinnati, "On the Forefront of Municipal Efficiency: 1920s Suburban Governance in Wyoming, Ohio"

John Williams, Georgia State University, "Blueprinting Segregation for the Future: Race and Transportation Planning in Postwar Atlanta, 1944-1979"

9:00 AM – PANEL 3 – ROOM 400 C
IDEAS IMITATING LIFE: IDEOLOGY IN 19TH- AND 20TH-CENTURY AMERICA

Alexander Parker, Discussant

Christopher Mackey, University of Cincinnati, "The American Temperance Union and the Cholera Epidemic of 1849: A Study of Temperance Rhetoric and Ideology"

Emily Fillingner-Huggins, University of Cincinnati, "'Completely Unprovoked': Female Violence in Atlanta 1890-1915"

Robert Knox, University of Cincinnati, "More separated than New York and New Orleans? Perception and Reality in Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky during Reconstruction"

10:30 AM – PANEL 4 – ROOM 400 A
WOMEN, THE INSANE, AND THE WORKING POOR IN THE 20TH CENTURY

Kristen Gaston, Discussant

Andrew Thompson, Florida State University, "Great War Labor Revolution? Shifting Traditional Roles of City Women vs. Rural Women in France"

Mackenzie Keys, University of Cincinnati, "Locating the issue of mental deficiency in Ireland, 1880 – 1913"

Bela Kashyap, University of Cincinnati, "Who's in Charge, the Government, the Mistress or the Maid? Female Domestic Workers in Twentieth-Century Southeast Asia"

10:30 AM – PANEL 5 – ROOM 400 C
ETHNIC AND RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES IN 20TH-CENTURY AMERICA

Dustin Meier, Discussant

Marcus Smith, University of Cincinnati, "Muslim Columbus: Diversity and Unity in an American Religious Community"

Benjamin Hunt, University of Cincinnati, "The War on German Education: A Study of Progressive Era Politics and Anti-German Legislation in Ohio from 1918-1923"

Michael Skaggs, University of Notre Dame, "Roman Holiday: A Midwestern Priest and Vatican II"

11:45 AM — LUNCH — ROOM 400 B
12:30 PM — KEYNOTE ADDRESS— ROOM 400 B

Nicholas Syrett, "'Wholly Unfit for the Marriage Condition': Sarah Hervey Parton and Writing the History of Age, Gender, and Sexuality"

Dr. Nicholas Syrett is an associate professor at the University of Northern Colorado. He is interested in the history of women, gender, and sexuality in the United States during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. His book, The Company He Keeps: A History of White College Fraternities, explores the history of masculinity and sexuality in traditionally white college fraternities. Dr. Syrett has published articles in American Studies, Genders, and the Journal of the History of Sexuality with forthcoming articles in GLQ, the Journal of the History of Childhood and Youth, and the Pacific Historical Review. He is also co-editing The Politics of Age in America: Colonial Period to the Modern Era, which will be published by NYU Press. He has been interviewed about his research by numerous publications, including Newsweek and Inside Higher Ed. In 2012-2013, Dr. Syrett was given the College Scholar Award by UNC's College of Humanities and Social Sciences.